Girls Are Working Hard in the Big Contest.---
Friends of the Young Ladies Are Interested.

Wide Spread Attention is Attracted By Election.

Most Every Young Lady in the Race Has Increased Her Standing In the Last Twenty-four Hours.

Interest continues to grow in our big Atlantic City Contest. Nominations closed last Saturday night and we have the names of a few contestants who will appear in our next issue, the list for this week having been made. No new candidates can enter now unless it will be to take the place of some young lady who has withdrawn from the race.

Look over the vote this week and you will see some changes in positions. For the first two weeks the contestants vote coupons, but now they are working for subscriptions. It is no trouble to get these subscriptions; in fact people are just waiting for the young ladies to call and get the money. From present indications this week will be the heaviest in the voting line. Turn in what you have and get a good lead in the race.

CANDIDATES ARE ENERGETIC.

The candidates who are making the race of their lives in The Advocate's big election are one of the most energetic bunches of young ladies to be found anywhere. Though splendidly supported by their dozens and dozens of friends they are not relying on their friends to do it all. Each and every one is taking an active part in the work herself, rustling votes and subscriptions with an earnestness and determination that is truly admirable.

Because of the liberal number of votes given with each one, the subscriptions are what count. Appreciating this fact the fair contestants are going right out after them, and as one young lady who is now near the top of the list in her district said, "I didn't know my friends would help me out with subscriptions so readily until the other day when I got my receipt book and went out among them. They just seemed eager to help me and not only gave me a subscription, but are going to save the coupons for me each week."

MORE SURPRISES.

From the manner in which subscriptions came in after the count Monday night was started, there will doubtless be more surprises in the ranks in store for the contestants and their friends next week when the results are published. The leaders had better not lose any time this week; they should get all the votes and certificates in the ballot-box possible or some more energetic candidate will crowd them out of their places.

PLENTY OF TIME.

Remember that the race is not half over yet, and if you haven't the standing that you would like to have, just a few subscriptions would place your name among the head-liners. There is plenty of time to win if you will only improve it.

None of the candidates should feel the least bit discouraged at this time, but should get in and work to win. Show your friends that you are in the election to win and that you are going to make the race of your lives to secure the brilliant honors. Do not become disheartened and let all the work your friends have done for you and all the votes you have been literally thrown away, for you owe it to those friends who have been kind enough to enthusiastically support you from the start and give you subscriptions (oftentimes wholly unknown to you) to show the determination and energy necessary to win. Show them that you appreciate their kindness by making an effort yourself. You can win. It's merely up to you.

It should be borne in mind that this is not a long-drawn-out contest, as most newspaper contests are, but a short, live election, closing now in a short time. The purpose is to select the five most popular young ladies in this city and surrounding country as the representatives of Mt. Sterling and the Advocate to the greatest of all summer festivities. Besides the magnificent fetes on the coast awaiting them, as guests of the Advocate they will be treated to a tour of the East, through the principal Eastern cities, taking in public places in interest all over, and including a visit in Washington, D. C.

REMEMBER

The big contest closes in a short time. The time is short. Go right after the votes now; don't allow your competitors to secure too much of a lead. A few subscriptions would place any young lady in first place in her district; and judging from the number of people who are coming voluntarily to the office and paying their subscriptions, they are easy to get. You will be surprised to find how many friends you have who will only be too glad to assist you in winning the royal honors.

IT'S UP TO THE GIRLS.

Candidates, it is now up to you. Make every minute count from now until the close of the contest and the victory is yours. The standing of the contestants remain about the same; some of the girls prefer to hold back until the finish in preference to making a big score in the results each week.

Do not think at this stage of the game that because you are a few thousand in the lead of your nearest competitors that you have the race won, for there are several farther down who may have a little something up their sleeve that will surprise you. There is only one way in which to win in this contest, and that is, secure every available vote and subscription it is possible to get.

None of the candidates should feel the least bit discouraged at this time, but should get to work to win; show your friends that you are in the race to win out and are going to make the race of your life in securing the brilliant awards. Do not become disheartened and let all the work you have done in gathering in votes and all the votes you have to your credit be literally thrown away, for you owe it to your friends who have been so kind to enthusiastically support you, who gave you subscriptions, to show your determination and energy necessary to win. Show them you appreciate their kindness by making a fight that will mean victory for you.

JUNE DANCE

To be Given at Trimble's Hall
This Evening, June 28,
Promises to Eclipse all
Others---Smittie's to Furnish Music.

The Sterling Dancing Club, the best known organization of its kind in the state, the one with the reputation of having the nicest and best attended dances of any club in the Blue Grass, will give their annual June dance at Trimble's Hall tonight (Wednesday), June 28. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leach, of Lexington, the well known decorators, were engaged to decorate the hall. The large posts through the center of the hall were wrapped in white cloth and from each post to the center of the room arches were run and from the center of the room to the wall another arch was formed. The posts and arches were hung and entwined with the beautiful Japanese Wistaria. On each post electric fans were placed so that the dancers would always get the benefit of their cooling breezes. While the decorations for the Christmas dance were beautiful, the hall for this dance was even lovelier. The programs were the nicest ones ever had by the club, being in the form of an eight page folder, with a beautiful white kid cover, with the monogram of the club S. D. C. embossed on same in gold. The club also furnished the spectators with a special program.

Pres. Lewis A. Judy, Vice Pres. T. P. Sutton and Sec'y. T. B. Robertson have been untiring in their efforts to make this dance the best one ever held in this city and the results of their labor are apparent. The club is to be congratulated on having such enterprising and hustling officers.

The grand march will begin promptly at 9:30 and will be led by Lewis A. Judy and Miss Nelle Tipton, with T. P. Sutton and Miss Louise Lloyd second, and T. B. Robertson and Miss Gladys Samuels third.

The following is the musical program rendered by Smittie's orchestra of Cincinnati.

GRAND MARCH

1. Two-Step—"Kiss Me, My Honey, Kiss Me."
  2. Waltz—"Chocolate Soldier."
  3. Two-Step—"I'd Love to Live in Loveland With a Girl Like You."
  4. Waltz—"The Girl on the Train."
  5. Two-Step—"Winter."
  6. Waltz—"All That I Ask of You is Love."
  7. Two-Step—"Stop, Stop, Stop."
  8. Waltz—"Out in the Ocean of Love."
  9. Two-Step—"Some of These Days."
  10. Waltz—"Circibiribin."
  11. Two-Step—"Madame Sherry."
  12. Waltz—"Amourse."
- ### INTERMISSION
13. Two-Step—"Girl of My Dreams."
  14. Waltz—"Gee, But the Moon Makes Me Lonesome."
  15. Two-Step—"Italian Love."
  16. Waltz—"Dream of Heaven."
  17. Two-Step—"Fascinating Ragtime Glide."
  18. Waltz—"Tales of Hoffman."
  19. Two-Step—"Constantly."
  20. Waltz—"Blue Danube."
  21. Two-Step—"Summertime is the Time for Me."
  22. Waltz—"That Dreamy Italian Waltz."
  23. Two-Step—"Where Are the Scenes of Yesterday."
  24. Waltz—"Sextette From Lucia."

SURPRISE WEDDING

Mr. Senff and Miss Nesbitt
Quietly Married Wednesday Morning.

A wedding which was quite a surprise to most of the many friends of both parties was quietly solemnized last Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. C. Nesbitt, on N. Maysville street, when Miss Emily Nesbitt became the bride of Mr. Earl Wallace Senff.

The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. B. C. Horton, was witnessed only by the immediate families and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Senff motored to Lexington from which point they will take an extended bridal trip through the East and North.

The bride is a lovely young lady whose musical accomplishments early won for her a place in local musical circles and whose charming personality has made for her many friends.

To those who have known Mr. Senff personally and politically no words of praise are necessary. Starting his career as a practicing attorney Mr. Senff was appointed Police Judge of this city, and a short while later he was elected to the office of County Attorney, which office he now holds with credit to himself and to the satisfaction of the people.

The Sentinel-Democrat joins their hosts of friends in wishing that life's path for them will be strewn with the flowers of happiness.

BARKSDALE HAMLETT

EDUCATOR CANDIDATE FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

Democratic Party Will Demand as Its Candidate a Man Who Is a Practical and Experienced Educator.

The first law of a democracy is the equalization of opportunity, which means the equitable distribution of intelligence through an adequate provision of educational equipment.

There can appear no virtue in the cry of a "Square Deal" so long as there exists a monopoly of intelligence, in a state where society is composed of individuals equally endowed by nature, yet to the great masses of whom all the light of human achievement and the social heritage of truth are denied.

Through a permanently organized campaign for educational improvement, readjusted ideals must be converted into practical realities. Thus with the latent energies of society be set free and opportunity will indeed knock at the door of every home in Kentucky.

His Platform.

I stand specifically for: A school free and accessible to every child in every rural district in Kentucky.

BARKSDALE HAMLETT.

The improvement, sanitation and equipment of our rural schools, in accordance with the best modern standards.

Maximum seven months terms in every district.

A rational and effective compulsory attendance.

Practical course of study; agricultural and the domestic and mechanical arts and sciences.

Good roads and consolidation where practical.

Teachers of scholarship, character and personality.

County high schools, accessibly located in every county.

Improvement of the county superintendent's office.

Liberal encouragement and maintenance of our normal schools and state university as component parts of our public school system.

Readjustment of our system of finance to effect larger results on a more economic basis.

Personal leadership in the field on the part of the state superintendent.

Success Comes Only at End of Effort.

The subject of this sketch is a man of strong individuality, keen mentality, and a broad humanitarian spirit, whose interest in his fellow men is sincere, while his work is always actuated by a desire to advance the cause of education. * * * He worked in the tobacco patch for the means with which to educate himself, and succeeded to the extent that he was graduated from the Hamden-Sidney College of Virginia, with the Orator's medal of his class, at the age of nineteen. * * * (From E. Polk Johnson's History of Kentucky, in publication.)

Endorsed by Educators and Press.

An ex-president of the Kentucky Educational association, one of its five original incorporators, and up to the present time a member of its board of directors. An ex-president of the Fourth Congressional District association; an ex-state board examiner. Began his career as teacher in Lynnland Academy, Hardin county, taught in the rural district and normal schools, Lame county; principal of the graded schools of Corydon, and principal of the Henderson high school, from which he came to the superintendency of the Hopkinsville public schools.

The Man For the Place.

Editor T. C. Underwood, president of the Kentucky Press association, in the Hopkinsville News Era: "The Democratic party could look long and hard without finding a worthier or more competent candidate for the important office of state superintendent of schools. Mr. Hamlett is a man who has always 'made good,' and his career has been a lesson of energy, perseverance and honor. The state has no more enthusiastic and effective an advocate of education, nor the Democratic party a more loyal supporter."

A Builder of Schools.

In another issue he has this to say:

"When Prof. Hamlett came to Hopkinsville, from Henderson, six years ago, as superintendent of the public schools, there were but two buildings. With the completion this year of the high school buildings, there will be six, at a cost of $200,000, and the faculty of twenty-three teachers has been increased to forty-six. * * * He is an orator of ability and in demand as an after-dinner speaker. * * * He is a popular member of the Elks, W. O. W., and other fraternal organizations. Prof. Hamlett is also superintendent of the First Baptist church Sunday-school, one of the largest in the state."

A Leader in Progressive Movement.

Prof. Hamlett, though only thirty-two years of age, has had thirteen years of successful experience as a teacher, rising by rapid promotions from teacher of a small county school at $30 a month to the splendid position he now holds at the head of the Hopkinsville school system, with more than 2,500 pupils and 40 teachers under his superintendency. Under his direction the schools have been improved from year to year, until they are more than ever the pride of one of the most progressive cities of the state.

A clean, young and progressive teacher, who has all the elements of success in his make-up he is a man in every way capable of making an officer of whom the whole state would justly be proud.

A leader in every progressive movement, Barksdale Hamlett will help to redeem Kentucky in 1911, and will be the next superintendent of Public Instruction. (Mayo Thomas, M. Mercham in the Hopkinsville Kentuckian.)

Master of School Problems.

From study and experience, he is master of the school problems of Kentucky and is particularly interested in the improvement of the common schools. The News knows no Democrat so thoroughly equipped at all points to make an ideal state superintendent, to advance the school interests proper of Kentucky, as Prof. Hamlett, and we would like to see him given the nomination without opposition. (Elizabethtown News.)

Friend to the Rural Schools.

Prof. Hamlett is a strong, intelligent friend to the cause of education and believes in a square deal from the smallest district to the most intelligent city in the country. He is certainly a friend to the common schools, believes in seven months' terms, good roads and improved facilities for our schools in every respect. (Mayfield Messenger.)

Strong Acquisition to the State Ticket.

Prof. Hamlett is in the foremost rank of Kentucky's educators and is in every way thoroughly qualified for the honor he seeks. We predict a successful candidacy for him and believe he will be a strong acquisition to the next state ticket. (Madisonville Journal.)

Solid Backing of Home People.

Hamlett stands at the very top among the educators of our state. His friends predict with all candor that he will go into the fight with the solid backing not only of his home county, but the entire second congressional district. (Daily Leader, Fulton.)

An Ideal Superintendent.

Barksdale Hamlett, of Hopkinsville, is the most advanced, intelligent and capable man in the state for superintendent of public instruction. He knows the needs of the state in all educational matters and would make an ideal state superintendent of public instruction. (H. A. Summers in The Elizabethtown News.)

Prof. Hamlett possesses all the qualifications to make the state an ideal superintendent. (Cadiz Record.)

The Man of the Hour.

As he is seen by the Ballard County Yeoman:

"The most casual reader can see in him the man of the hour, the man in whom all people of all parties can graciously unite and work for. His whole life, his every energy, his wonderful brain power are wrapped in this, the greatest work to be done in Kentucky. Though yet young, he is undoubtedly the best equipped man for this office the state has ever produced."

Determination and Success in His Face

A young man who seems to have an ambition to accomplish something worth while in the educational field, and judging from that determined expression in his frank open countenance, he is going to succeed in the undertaking. (Daily Bulletin, Maysville.)

A Worthy and Competent Leader.

His work at Hopkinsville is a monument to his ability as a school worker and organizer. He is abundantly qualified for the high office which he seeks, and his broad platform embraces the very best in educational endeavor. He is a worthy man in every respect, having worked himself up from a poor boy. Already he has pledged to him almost the solid vote of the teachers of the state, and all interested in the improvement and advancement of Kentucky's educational facilities, see in him a worthy and competent leader for the accomplishment of those things. (Hartford Herald.)

Successful in Great Undertakings.

He is eminently qualified for the position which he seeks, and his record as an educator has been one of uninterrupted success. It is due to him that the handsome new Christian county and Hopkinsville high school is now a permanent reality, having been erected under the Sullivan law, at a cost of $100,000. (The News-Democrat, Paducah.)

We believe as state superintendent of public instruction, he would be the right man in the right place. (Calloway County Gazette.)

Mr. Hamlett believes in the equalization of opportunities, and his greatest wish in his work is to make opportunity knock at the home of every school child in Kentucky. We like Mr. Hamlett, and unlike most politicians he improves on acquaintance. In fact, he is not a politician, he is a school man who is well equipped for the office. (The Breckinridge News, Cloverport.)

Making a Fine Race.

He is a man of infinite ability and capacity and stands upon a platform that neither trims nor tergiversates; that begs no question nor evades a single issue. Mr. Hamlett, a man of individuality and ability, an educator and orator, is conceded to be the logical man for the place and is endorsed by leading educators and the press. Prof. Hamlett is out for the Democratic nomination and is making a vigorous canvass; he stands for progression and has the unqualified endorsement of his home people. He has the credentials of a sturdy Democrat and bears the highest qualifications of an ideal superintendent.

Eminently qualified for the position sought, we believe him to be "the man" for superintendent of our state schools.

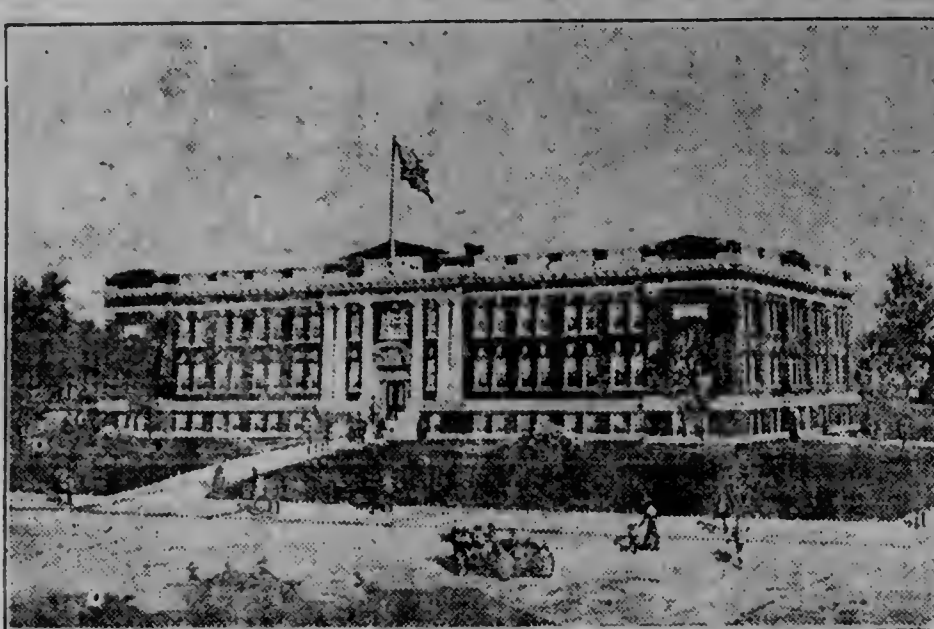

Prof. Hamlett is a strong friend to the cause of advanced education and believes in a square deal from the smallest district to the most progressive city in the country. He is a friend to the common schools of the state, is a clean, sound and energetic teacher who has all the elements of success in his make-up and is a man in every way capable of making an officer of whom the whole state would be justly proud.

It is hoped that Mr. Hamlett will have no opposition before the Democratic primary, for he is so thoroughly Democratic and clean in his views, so well equipped from all angles, that antagonism would be almost unjustified.

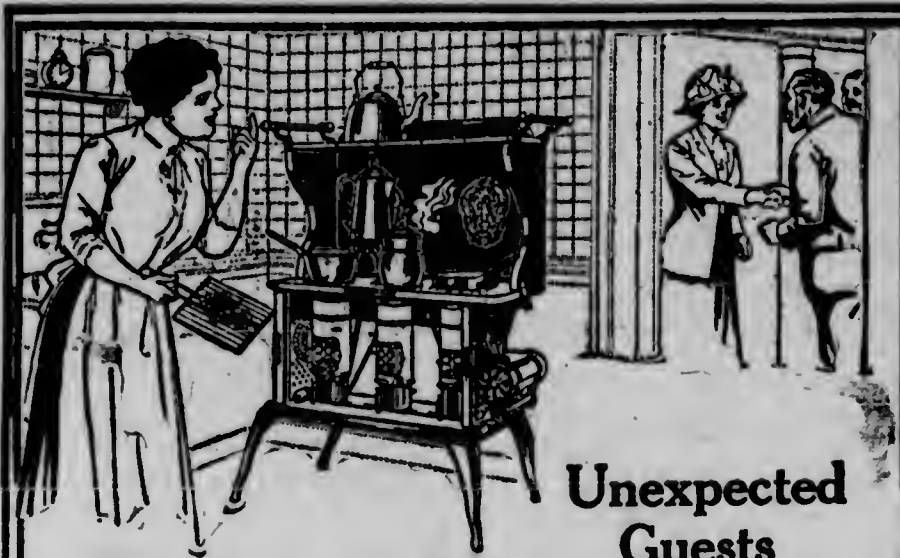

Mr. Hamlett has given a good account of himself, and his work at Hopkinsville is a monument to his ability as a school worker and organizer. He has made more than good there and can make good at the head of Kentucky's school affairs. If you want to know what Barksdale Hamlett stands for, just follow carefully the creed of the man as promulgated by himself. (Henderson Journal.)

In the Lead.

Barksdale Hamlett, of Hopkinsville, continues in the lead for the Democratic nomination for Superintendent of Schools. His superior qualifications for the office give him a decided advantage over both his opponents, who are not active school men. The people of the State are awakening to the fact that to elect a lawyer to the agricultural department or a farmer to the superintendency of schools would be sheer folly, and they are lining up in this section at least for Mr. Hamlett mainly because he is an eminent, active educator and has made a success in his chosen line of work. (The Somerset Journal.)

New Hopkinsville, Ky., High School, built under the administration of Barksdale Hamlett, as Superintendent of the Hopkinsville public schools.

Unexpected Guests

The farmer and his wife were about to sit down to a cold supper when they saw some old friends, driving towards the house.

The good wife was equal to the occasion—thanks to her New Perfection Oil Cook-stove.

She had it lit in a moment, and her guests hardly were seated on the porch before a hearty hot meal was ready for the table—sausages and eggs and long rashers of streaky bacon, and rolls just crisped in the oven and fresh coffee—and the hostess herself as cool and neat as if she had not been near the kitchen.

She never could have managed it with an old-fashioned range. The New Perfection is the quickest, most convenient and best cooker on the market.

The cost of insurance is substantially the same in all agencies, but what you get for your money varies as much as the apples in the row.

Choose then HOFFMAN'S INSURANCE AGENCY. For Nearly Three Quarters of a Century it has paid every loss, big and little. Its reputation is unexcelled. It is the best fire insurance apple of them all, and its policies cost no more than those in agencies of inferior quality. Why not use the same judgment in buying insurance that you would in such a trivial matter as buying fruit at a fruit stand?

Quit

Saying fate is against you.
Finding fault with the weather.
Anticipating evils in the future.
Pretending, and be your real self.
Going around with a gloomy face.
Faultfinding, nagging and worrying.
Taking offense where none is intended.
Dwelling on fancied slights and ### wrongs.

Talking big things and doing small ones.
Scolding and flying into a passion over trifles.
Boasting of what you can do instead of doing it.
Thinking that life is a grind, and not worth living.
Talking continually about yourself and your affairs.
Depreciating yourself and making light of your abilities.

Saying unkind things about your friends and acquaintances.
Exaggerating, and making mountains out of mole hills.
Lamenting the past, holding on to disagreeable experiences.
Pitying yourself and bemoaning your lack of opportunities.
Comparing yourself with others to your own disadvantage.
Working once in a while and take time to renew your energies.
Waiting round for chances to turn up. Go and turn them up.
Writing letters when the blood is hot, which you may regret later.
Thinking that all the good chances and opportunities are gone by.
Thinking of yourself to the exclusion of everything and everyone else.
Carping and criticising. See the best rather than the worst in others.
Dreaming that you would be happier in some other place or circumstances.
Belittling those whom you envy because you feel that they are superior to you.
Dilating on your pains and aches and misfortunes to everyone who will listen to you.
Speculating as to what you would do in someone else's place, and do your best in your own.
Gazing idly into the future and dreaming about it instead of making the most of the present.
Longing for the good things that others have instead of going to work and earning them for yourself.
Looking for opportunities hundreds of miles away instead of right where you are.
Now that you have read these "quit" suggestions, what do you think of them? How many of these hurtful practices have you been guilty of?

It is really worth your while to ask yourself this question seriously, for by so doing you may get a picture of yourself as others see you and you will doubtless be surprised to find what a regular old "grouch" you have been, as well as a nasty nuisance to your family and neighbors.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them with a Veil; Remove Them with the New Drug

An eminent skin specialist recently discovered a new drug, othine—double strength, which is so uniformly successful in removing freckles and giving a clear beautiful complexion that it is sold by W. S. Lloyd under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first night's use will show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely. It is absolutely harmless, and cannot injure the most tender skin.

Be sure to ask W. S. Lloyd for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money back guarantee.

CHEROKEE KENNESAW CREOLE ETOWAH GEORGIA MARBLE

Since the very earliest ages of history, marble everywhere has been recognized as pre-eminent in the construction of the world's greatest monuments and buildings, and Georgia Marble contains those durable qualities for which the stone from the ancient quarries was so justly famous. In heavy Georgia Marble stands without an equal. It matches up perfectly, and when lettered shows a striking contrast that renders the inscription readable from a distance. The crystalline formation is so closely interlocked as to prevent the slightest degree of absorption or decomposition, rendering it proof against climatic conditions, and it remains beautiful and unbroken always.

DEMOCRACY'S RESPONSIBILITY.

Next Saturday (July 1st) the Democrats of Kentucky will be given the responsible duty of selecting the men who will compose the next Democratic State ticket. Upon how wisely they do this task will largely depend the success or failure of its ticket in the fall election.

We regret exceedingly the apparent lack of interest manifested in the primary. Every Democrat owes it to his party and his State to participate in the selection of our nominees. There was a time in Kentucky when anybody, under the party emblem, could win, but that day is past. It is now incumbent upon us to select only our best men as standard-bearers. Unless we do this, the ticket will be repudiated and as punishment we will be given four more years of Republican mis-rule; but fortunately for the State, this calamity can never again occur, if the Democrats will do their duty next Saturday. Before the primary are men of high character and magnificent qualifications, of which a ticket can be selected that will easily receive popular approval in November. We therefore urge every Democrat in the State to carefully acquaint himself with the private life and personal record of every candidate asking his endorsement and then vote with an eye singled on party success and the general welfare of our beloved Commonwealth.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY IS JULY FIRST.

Saturday, July 1st, is the day set for the Democratic State primary. There are candidates for every office from the Governor on down. On the ballot you will find the names of men who are among the best that this grand old Commonwealth produces now or ever did produce. And it is the duty of every American voter residing in the State of Kentucky and registering as a Democrat to go to the polls and cast his vote for the man he conscientiously believes will best serve Democracy. And if every Democrat will go to the polls and vote for whom he believes to be the best man, there is little, in fact, there is no doubt but that the rooster will crow louder next November than he has crowed in many years, and Kentucky, like the Nation, will again be controlled by the Democratic party.

ATLANTIC CITY CONTEST

The perfectly delightful outing will be all the more welcome to and appreciated by the pretty contestants after the almost unbearable weather for the past few days. Who wouldn't enjoy a refreshing, invigorating dip in the ocean or a cool, comfortable seat way out on the grand piers that extend for rods out in the sea, overlooking the bathers, on an evening as hot as the last?

People from all over the world will be there. It is said that at no other resort in the world can a person get such a varied insight into the society and customs of not only people from our own country, but from all parts of the globe. All come to this premier of resorts to enjoy the cooling sea breezes and to take part in the wide-heralded festivities. It is to this place that the delegation of beautiful girls representing Mt. Sterling and Eastern Kentucky will start soon after the close of the great race.

Justice of the Peace
C. B. Hicks,
Three Springs, June 13th, 1911.
Hart County, Ky.
Hon. William Addams.

Dear Sir:—
I am in receipt of a letter from a certain tobacco warehouse man in Louisville pleading with me to support Sen. McCreary for the Democratic Nomination for Governor of Kentucky, and I think that it is to your best interests to know that such coöperate interests as this are attempting to defeat you. I am a farmer and tobacco grower and also a poor man and I realize that these interests are against you for the reason that you have been for some time connected with the Burley Tobacco Society, commonly known as the Burley Pool. I feel that it would be well for you to know these things that you might get in touch with farmers and explain why you are being thus handled by the warehouse men. I would be pleased to work my County and some other Counties for you through the tobacco pool men in this section, but financially I am too poor. I am ready and will do all in my power to assist you in this race.

Hoping that you may win, I am yours for success,
CHAS. B. HICKS.

Landmark.
The old street car center at Main and Cheapside streets, which has been one of the landmarks of Lexington for many years, will, in compliance with a recent order of the grand jury, soon be a thing of the past. It was announced that the building will be torn down, and thereafter the transfers between the different city lines, will be made at other points. The old "center," which consisted of a small frame building modeled on the lines of a car, stood in the middle of the street at the entrance to Cheapside from Main, and through years of use came to be considered really the center of the city.

CORD-HERRIOTT.
The many friends of Prof. Robert Ireland Cord and Miss Mary Herriott were very much surprised when it became known last Tuesday afternoon that they had married and departed in an automobile for Paris. The wedding was announced for Wednesday, but the couple decided to steal a march on their friends—and they certainly did.

The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. H. G. Moody in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. Immediately after the wedding ceremony, the couple, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. James S. Bogie, Jr., and Miss Catherine Spence Herriott, were driven in a machine to Paris, from which point they took a train for Cincinnati.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Herriott, is a member of one of Mt. Sterling's most prominent families and is well known and admired throughout the Blue Grass section. She is a girl of charming personality and is exceeding popular wherever she is known.

Prof. Cord is president of the Mt. Sterling Collegiate Institute and is a young man of striking personality and exceptional ability. He succeeded his father, the late Wm. H. Cord, as head of this splendid institution, and by his untiring efforts has built one of the best schools in this section of the state.

It affords us much pleasure indeed, in joining their numerous friends in wishing that their married life may be one continuous day of happiness.

The couple returned home Saturday and are at home to their friends on Holt avenue.

Of Somerset Church as Written For the Advocate by J. T. Highland.

Read the following letter:
Hillsboro, Ind., June 18, 1911.
Mr. J. T. Highland, Mt. Sterling, Ky.:
Dear Sir and Brother:—
I want to take time from the busy cares of life to write you my appreciation of your history of old Somerset in the Mt. Sterling Advocate. I was never a member of the congregation there, but sat in Mrs. Mary Young's Sunday School class along with Will Highland, Mason Hurt, Clarence White, Prewitt Young, George Owings, John Judy, Wm. Jeffries and Clem Madden, during the years of '82 and '84.

The impression of yours and Matt Scott's and Joe Johnson's faithfulness to the church then have not been lost on me and serve to encourage and inspire me yet.

I am an elder here and superintendent of the Bible School besides. I teach a Bible class of an average attendance of better than thirty-five.

What a heritage the faithful three (Highland, Hathaway and Lane) left to their community.

May our Father bless you with many more years of splendid service at Somerset and bless all of the work done there, is the sincere prayer of

Odd Fellows Re-Union.

The members of the local Lodges I. O. O. F., are very much interested in the great Re-Union of all Odd Fellows, their families and friends throughout Kentucky and Southern Indiana, at Louisville, Ky., on Tuesday, July 11.

The Re-Union will be held at Fountaine Ferry Park, one of the greatest pleasure resorts in the United States.

To make the Re-Union one of especial importance, the children of the Widows' and Orphans' Home at Lexington will be brought to Louisville by special train, and also the children of the Widows' and Orphans' Home at Greensboro, Ind. Preparations are being made to give these children the greatest day they have ever had or ever will have.

Grand Sire, John B. Cockrum, has been invited to be present, and the Grand Masters, Grand Secretaries and Grand Patriarchs of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, Virginia and Tennessee have also been invited. Many of them have already signified their intention of being present.

In Kentucky, Odd Fellowship has now 32,000 members, in Southern Indiana 20,000. Every one of these 52,000 members have been notified of this Re-Union. The railroads of Kentucky have given a one-fare for the round trip, and the Indiana roads in the Louisville territory one and one-half fare for the round trip.

One of the most enjoyable features of the Re-Union is the basket picnic. Each family is expected to take their dinners in baskets, and eat them picnic fashion.

Grand Master Gruber, of Kentucky, and Grand Master Stipp, Indiana, are both exerting all of their influence toward getting every Odd Fellow within reach of Louisville to attend.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed bids will be received by the Fiscal Court of Montgomery County, until 10 o'clock a. m., Thursday, July 6, 1911, for the furnishing, knapping and spreading of 1,600 rods of good hard limestone rock. ### Mt. Sterling Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Mt. Sterling citizen:

Mrs. Mary Hinson, 21 Strother street, Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I believe that if I had not used Doan's Kidney Pills I would not be living today. My health was poor and two of our best physicians stated that I could not expect to recover. They gave me a year to prepare for my sad fate. The kidney secretions were unnatural and at times my body bloated. I was nervous and suffered severely from headaches and dizzy spells. Spots floated before my eyes and I often had to grasp something for support. My back was weak and I could not stoop to button my shoes, in fact, could hardly get around. I was so much impressed by a testimonial given in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills that I decided to try them and procured a box at Duerson's drug store. They gave me immediate relief and I continued taking them until I was in good health. I have but little trouble from my kidneys now and for that reason recommend Doan's Kidney Pills highly."

The Advantages of America to Foreigners.

- First—Introduction.
- Second—The Educational Advantages.
- Third—The Political Advantages.
- Fourth—The Social Advantages.
- Fifth—The Conclusion.

"Again and again we hear people say: 'If only I had a chance, I could do something in the world.' but the trouble is that these people do not know what to do with their chances.

Everyone in America has a fair and equal opportunity but some use it to a better advantage than others. When we stop to think, must we not admit that of all the civilized nations in the world, there are very few that can surpass our country in the opportunities it offers to her people. As an example, let us consider the educational advantages of this country.

Who with any desire for knowledge cannot obtain it in this country? Surely no one. For the public schools are open to all irrespective of wealth, nationality or birth. Thousands of boys and girls are graduating from our public High Schools to-night, who, even if not able to pursue their studies further, have sufficient knowledge to perform the work before them. How many of the pupils could have done this, had they had to pay for their education as do most of the pupils of the European countries? To give the poorer class an equal educational advantage, evening schools are opened for those who work during the day. Here they are as carefully instructed in the same branches, as the pupils of the day schools, and many are fitted for our colleges and universities by attending only these evening schools. For those, who are not physically fit to study in the close school rooms, open air schools are fast forming, with very satisfactory results. To encourage education still further, many public libraries are established, which are thrown wide open to the public and if properly consulted, offer a wealth of knowledge.

Another great advantage of this country is the political freedom. The immigrant is so dazed by this idea that at first he fails to grasp it. It seems very wonderful indeed, that all people should be considered equal. That any ordinary man is free to attain to any office in the State or nation if he is only ambitious enough to work for it. How different it all is from the monarchies in Europe! There, no matter how intelligent a man is, he cannot hold any office unless he be of noble birth or of great wealth, while many men who have no brains and little education hold the highest offices in the land, and thousands of educated and intelligent men must abide without a murmur, by the harsh laws of these men. When we think of all this, it does not seem at all strange that foreigners should flock to this country and consider it a wonderful land.

The social life, too, is very much broader here than it is in Europe. The average family in America has a comfortable and sanitary home. But the average family in Europe makes its home in two or three rooms with no improvements, whatever, and their food is not so good or various as ours, either. Indeed, how can they have many comforts when the average working man in Europe gets a salary between three and seven dollars a week. And thus there is a very wide abyss between the rich and middle class.

These are only a few of the many advantages that surround us. And when we realize all this have we not many chances to do great things and must we not in our turn try to make our country what our forefathers meant it to be a land of freedom, prosperity and justice."

The above article was written by Miss Lillian Goldberg, of Providence, R. I. Miss Goldberg is a sister of Mrs. Max Glick, of this city.

"Sure Cure"

"I would like to guide suffering women to a sure cure for female troubles," writes Mrs. R. E. Mercer, of Frozen Camp, W. Va. "I have found no medicine equal to Cardui. I had suffered for about four years. Would have headache for a week at a time, until I would be nearly crazy. I took Cardui and now I never have the headache any more."

E 53

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

The pains from which many women suffer every month are unnecessary.

It's not safe to trust to strong drugs, right at the time of the pains.

Better to take Cardui for a while, before and after, to strengthen the system and cure the cause.

This is the sensible, the scientific, the right way. Try it.

In Old Kentucky.

To own a home is one of the most cherished thoughts that is implanted within the human breast. The young man engaging in business in the city finds himself at some time calculating the amount necessary to begin payments upon property that will represent a habitation for himself and those dependent upon him. In the country the tenant of the farms is awakening to the fact that by energy and saving he can purchase a small tract of land, build his home and know the proud independence of being a landowner and master of his own destiny. There is little need of this class in Kentucky seeking newer fields. In this commonwealth the opportunity is always at hand. Kentucky may have some drawbacks, but on the whole, her people, her soil and surroundings make home investment just a little better than the allurements of distant sections. There is not the slightest desire to discourage those who contemplate removal from the State, nor to depreciate the merits of other lands, but to awaken us to the blessings around us here, for dearest of all homes to Kentuckians is Kentuck.

Clark's Weekly News of the Har- ness Horse.

Each year the first new standard performer attracts as much interest as does the first bale of cotton or load of grain. For 1911 honors in this branch of the horse world go to Knight Onward, p. 2:16, who as a two-year-old brought $153 in the auction ring. He is a good sized, handsome bay stallion, bred by Putehen Wilkes Farm, Lexington, Ky., a son of Onward and Miss Rita 2:08; dam Helena L., who is also the dam of Helen Gurry 2:19 and J. J. Patehen 2:29, by J. J. Audubon 2:19; grandam Jane L. 2:19 by Hambletonian Mambrino 5421.

Knight Onward obtained his record May 24th over the half-mile track at Oshawa, Ont., in the third heat of a winning race, driven by Nat Ray, of Toronto, who also won the 2:30 trot, best time 2:24, in straight heats with the converted pacer Emily Morris 2:21, so the Canadian trainer has the credit of making the first trotter as well as the first pacer of the season.

At the present writing forty-three new standard performers have been reported. Twenty-three trotters and twenty pacers. Twenty-eight have reduced their previous records—fifteen trotters and thirteen pacers. All are by different sires. Nine stallions get their credit as a sire of standard performers. Ten of the dams represented have race records. The bay stallion, Furioso by Phil Rysdyk 3:54 and the black mare, Lew Jean by Cap Sheaf are a tie as the fastest new performers, with pacing records of 2:14, obtained at Chatham, Ont., June 6th. Foote Prince by Pulaski Prince and Edward T. by Direct are a tie for the first honors in the reduced record class, both are mares and obtained their present records of 2:14 June 6th at Trenton, N. J., and both had records of 2:15 made in 1910, a combination of strange coincidences.

Mr. Arthur Canton Thomas, the active official of the Western Association of Trotting Horse Breeders organized last winter, who recently moved from Omaha to Chicago, is making commendable efforts in the interest of a new futurist.

The event is for foals of 1911, the produce of mares owned west of the Mississippi river and the states of Louisiana and Minnesota, to be raced in 1914, when the colts are three-years-olds. The liberal conditions are an inducement to join the association and every owner of an eligible colt should get in the bandwagon at once. The records of the past three seasons racing will show more colt contests in the West than in the East, yet all the big futurities are pulled off in the latter section and it is about time the West was waking up to their opportunities in this line.

ARTISTIC SAYINGS OF RODIN

Comments of the Famous French Sculptor on the Subject of Effortism and Exaggeration.

The French sculptor Rodin always has been looked to as one of the best commentators upon art of his day. A book of his sayings on art questions is almost as valuable as one of his books of pencil drawings—and these are by many esteemed above anything he has succeeded in executing in vindication of his profound theories and convictions. He has recently had something to say on this very subject of effortism and exaggeration. "What especially pleases the ignorant is an unexpressive minuteness of execution and a sham nobility of action. . . . The vulgar care nothing for the sincere observation that seems theistic poses, and is interested only in the perfectly simple, but far more thrilling, attitudes of real life. . . . People rave over poses that are never seen in nature, and call them artistic because they suggest the swagger of Italian models seeking employment. When you have seen a picture, or read a bit of literature, and noticed neither drawing nor coloring, nor style, you have felt an emotion that filled your heart."—Boston Transcript.

CHARACTER IN "PENDENNIS"

How the Supposed Prototype of Foker Pestered the Author of the Book.

Mr. Arcedeckne, the prototype of Foker, pined at being portrayed as in "Pendennis," took every occasion of annoying its author by familiarity of manner.

One day when Thackeray was sitting in the smoking room of the Garrick, in his favorite attitude, his legs crossed, one foot pointed in the air, and surrounded by admirers, Foker advanced, and hailing him with, "Well, Thack, how are you?" struck his match at the same time on the sole of the upturned foot and proceeded to light his cigar—a liberty which Thackeray very much resented.

It was he, of course, who on hearing Thackeray say he was feeling somewhat nervous as to the success of his lectures in America, called out, "I'll tell you what you want, Thack. You want a piano."—Brookfield, "Cambridge Apostles."

LITTLE COLOR THERE.

"I notice by official order from Washington that enlisted men of the regular army must wear their 'dress uniforms' when off duty in city streets," said the man whose military interest is based on real service. "But the plain citizen need not think that the soldiers in full dress are going to add vivacity and color to the streets, as do the red and gold warriors in European cities. Nothing like it. The order merely means that khaki and olive drab uniforms are not good form hereafter. The gorgeous 'dress' uniform of the American private is a little more stunning than that of a sleeping car conductor, but not as nobly as the garb of a hotel bellboy."

POLITENESS, INDEED.

In a little commune in Brabant is to be seen a big notice board at the entrance of the town. On it appears the following notice to automobilists: "One hundred Kilometers an hour." When we know that 100 kilometers equals 75 miles it scarcely need be added that the wit of the commune has added a nought to the notice. But the palm of original notices, we learn, belongs to a little English town. On the board one reads: "Please drive slowly." Fifteen hundred yards further on is another board, bearing the words, "Thank you." As the French journal from which we take the story observes, it is an exquisite example of politeness.

NEW HIS TIME TABLE.

A woman waited and waited for a car in a Boston suburb, and no car came. Finally she lost all patience. "Will you please tell me," she demanded of the starter, an old man seated on a keg and chewing tobacco, "if there are any cars left on this line, and if so, when they will pass here?"

"Without removing his eyes from the distant horizon and without stopping chewing, the old man answered:

"A quarter arter, a half arter, a quarter to, and at."—Success Magazine.

TASTE FOR GOOD READING

This Should Be Result of a Child's Training and With It He Will Educate Himself.

From the total training during childhood there should result in the child a taste for interesting and improving reading, which should direct and inspire its subsequent intellectual life. That schooling which results in this taste for good reading, however unsystematic or eccentric the schooling may have been, has achieved a main end of elementary education; and that schooling which does not result in implanting this permanent taste has failed. Guided and animated by this impulse to acquire knowledge and exercise his imagination, through reading, the individual will continue to educate himself all through life. Without that deep-rooted impression he will soon cease to draw on the accumulated wisdom of the past and the new resources of the present, and, as he grows older he will live in a mental atmosphere which is always growing thinner and emptier. Do we not all know many people who seem to live in a mental vacuum—to whom, indeed, we have great difficulty in attributing immortality, because they apparently have so little life except that of the body? Fifteen minutes a day of good reading would have given anyone of this multitude a really human life. The uplifting of the democratic masses depends on this implanting at school of the taste of good reading.

SURE!

"It's no use. We must get a separation."
"That is what I say. Isn't it beautiful how we agree?"

OFFENDING BLACK BOTTLE.

A church member in a lonely district of Saskatchewan absented himself from services for some months. On being approached on the subject he said he was sorry, but it was impossible to attend any more. He was pressed to give reasons, and at length said it was owing to the bad conduct of the superintending clergyman and entechist.

He and others had witnessed them drinking when driving round on their visits. They had passed a black bottle from hand to hand. It was impossible to attend the ministry of such men. Inquiries proved that the offending "bottle" was a pair of field glasses with which the drivers surveyed the surrounding country and tried to locate the various churches, shacks and trails!—Sunday at Home.

FIRST JURY CASE.

A noted case tried in the reign of the conqueror, with Otho, bishop of Bayeux, presiding as judge, has been erroneously supposed to be the first jury case on record. A dispute had arisen about certain lands, to which the sheriff laid claim on behalf of the king. All the men in the county were assembled and sworn to say the truth. Eventually they found for the sheriff. The judge, dissatisfied with the verdict directed the men of the county to choose out of their number 12, who should upon their oaths, confirm the verdict if they thought fit. This they did. Authorities now agree, however, that the chosen 12 were not jurors, but merely compurgators, sworn to give evidence. The legal existence of jurors was first recorded under the Plantagenets.

PLAY CHILDREN ENJOY.

Alice in Wonderland was one of the reproductions at Christmas time in Boston, which proved most entertaining and instructive to the children, who followed all the adventures of the wonderful lady with the white rabbit and the mad hatter. "Alice" toys were on sale, made by special order of the "King of Hearts."

WELL SNUBBED BY HER MAID

Little Mrs. Jones, Being Green at Housekeeping, Submitted and So Kept Her Domestic.

"Yes, this last maid has stayed a long time," admitted little Mrs. Jones, "but it's only because I've been willing to let her snub me left and right. She saw the minute she got in the house that I was young and green at housekeeping, so she took the privilege of middle age to disapprove of everything I did and had. She never dusted the old mahogany, for instance, without audibly lamenting that it 'was a pity young folk just married couldn't start out with brand-new furniture instead of 'them old-styl' things.' The day the winter coal was delivered, five tons of it, she met me when I got home with this rebuke: 'You never told your coal dealer to have his men sprinkle that coal—suppose you never heard of sprinkling coal to keep the coal dust from flying. As it is, everything on this first floor is black with it. Why, if this old thing, pointing to the valuable Persian rug father brought from Bagdad last year and which is the pride of our lives, if this old thing had been a handsome Brussels carpet it would have been ruined; but, of course, being a faded-out old thing, it doesn't matter.'"

THE QUESTION.

Lotty—She is said to be a lady of quality.
Cissie—Good or bad?

REDUCING HATPINS.

"I am glad to see that women are actually going to agitate the matter of the long hatpin," remarked the considerate girl. "I had two beautiful pins presented to me at Christmas and they protruded so far beyond my hat that I simply would not wear them until I had them fixed. I don't approve this idea of wearing a tip on the end of a pin. It wouldn't be pretty, and, besides, it would stick out in the same way the point does now. The simplest thing is to have the pins cut off until the manufacturers begin making shorter ones again. I had three inches cut off my pins at a cost of ten cents, and now you can't see the ugly spikes at all."

OPINION OF BALZAC.

He was the least capable and most self-conscious of artists. His observation was that of an inspired and very careful auctioneer; he was a visionary and a fanatic; he was gross, ignorant, morbid of mind, cruel in heart, vexed with a strain of sadism that makes him on the whole corrupting and ignoble in effect. But he divined and invented prodigiously if he observed and recorded tediously, and his achievement remains a phantasmagoria of desperate suggestions and strange, affecting situations and potent and inordinate effects.—W. E. Henley.

MORE TERRITORY.

"I envy you," says the very thin man. "I wish I had your weight. Here I am, a skinny, dyspeptic creature, suffering half the time with stomach ache!"

"Envy me!" chuckles the very fat man. "Why, what if you do have the stomach ache half the time? Think what a little bit of a stomach ache you can have. Now, when I have the stomach ache it amounts to something."—Life.

THE DOG FANCIER.

"My neighbor has a dog for which I am willing to pay $1,000," said the householder, "but the owner won't sell. He stands out for $2,000. I may possibly be able to get the dog for $1,500, but I doubt it." And he shook his head pensively.

"Why do you want the dog so badly?" inquired somebody.
"To break his neck. He barks all night."

Ideals in Education.

"The entire system of education, both here and in America, seems to require reconstruction from bottom to top; it would be well, if I may say so, if we could scrap the whole wretched academic show and start afresh, in order that it may be greatly improved in quality and shortened in duration. Two ideals should be kept in view—we should aim at the development of individuality and encourage productivity."—Professor Armstrong (Eng.)
